Customer Reviews

I ran across this book because I was trying to "supercharge" my LinkedIn profile. My profile was already pretty good because I'm a Branding Consultant for a company which optimizes profiles. But it always helps to read books such as this to find out additional things that can be done to make the profile even better. This book was easy to follow and contained a number of tips and strategies which will be helpful to anyone working on their profile. Recommended. Richard Lowe Jr is the author of Focus on LinkedIn: Create a Personal Brand on LinkedIn™ to Make More Money, Generate Leads and Find Employment (Business Professional Series Book 7) and a Senior Branding Consultant.

I think this book has a fair amount of good information, particularly for the cost. The words to avoid were very helpful. If you're looking for a starting point for your LinkedIn profile, this book provides that.

Indeed, we cannot take for granted the power of social media these days. Almost everything can be done now in the different social media websites. From expressing our feelings, showing off our clothes, to promoting our online or offline business. Social Media Marketing is the "in" thing now. This book is one of those essential ones that has shown the importance of one site that will help anyone bag the job of his dream--LinkedIn. What is amazing about this book is that this book has given ideas, essential ones, which will help anyone make a profile in LinkedIn. Every little aspect has been discussed really well. This book is a good springboard for anyone wanting to make a very great LinkedIn profile and land in a job that he wants because of it.

This was a great book to help clear up some confusion I had regarding LinkedIn. It taught me how to create a great profile that will stand out to employers. This book also had some neat little do's and don't's for LinkedIn. Overall this was a very helpful book.

LinkedIn is becoming more and more your professional card on the internet and, as a result, the whole world. This guide does a great job at teaching you how to really make your profile appealing and avoid some common mistakes. Good read!
